Publishers' Department

Our Little Folks

Our Little Folks for July 23, 30, and August 6, are mailed this week. The circulation of this neat little paper is constantly growing. It is an illustrated four page weekly for the children in the Sunday-school and the home. If you have not seen a copy of it, or if your school is not using it, please send for sample copies. We shall be glad to mail you one each of the four numbers just printed. The teacher of your primary department will find the paper a great help in giving instruction to the little ones.

The Angelus

The Angelus is a large four page illustrated weekly for both old and young readers. It contains the very best of reading matter, carefully edited by Emma Gnagey, daughter of the editor. If your school is not using this paper we shall be glad to furnish you a sufficient number of sample copies free to give one number to each family represented in your school. Let us know the number desired.

Our Business Year

Please do not forget that the business year of the Brethren Publication Board closes July 31, 1899, and the new business year opens August 1, 1899. It is very desirable that all unpaid subscriptions be settled for before the close of the month. There will also be transfer of ledger accounts into a new ledger, and an effort will be made to collect as many of the old accounts as possible. Brethren, please help us in this work. So many readers think the $1.50 they owe matters very little, but it does matter. You must not forget that most of our receipts are in sums of $1.50. If you know yourself indebted to the office, either unpaid subscription or otherwise, please make settlement as early as possible.

Personal Mention

Brother Rench continues his contributions on the "Lord's Supper," and we are pleased to note that they are read with great interest.

We are pleased to note the progress of the work in Brother Gillin's congregation, but very sorry to learn of the sad accident to three of the young people in that community. May the Lord comfort and sustain the parents of these young men.

We call special attention to the paper on "Missions" by Brother Kimmel. When once we get a little more of that apostolic spirit of missions into our churches our contributions for that purpose will be no longer so meager as they now are.

We trust there may be a hearty response to the appeal of brother T. C. Leslie, Roann, Ind., "Wanted." Here is an opportunity for some one to do practical service for Jesus, a service of which in the last day it will be said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

The communication from Brother Furry should have the earnest consideration of all the young people in the brotherhood, and the reference to Sabbath desecration should receive the attention of the whole church. The Brethren church should be in the front rank of reform, such as the Sabbath and Divorce questions, Temperance, etc. These do not have a conspicuous enough place on the program of our state and national conferences.

We think Brother Reichard is unnecessarily alarmed about that resolution passed by the Maryland and Virginia Conference. The Ohio Conference has passed an almost similar resolution and means to stand by it. However the slight modification would no doubt make it less objectionable to our brother. The House of Representatives has a right to say who shall have a seat in that body, and it certainly is the right of the conference to have the same privilege. It is not legislation, but a matter of governmental expediency.
